—Mr. John M. R. D Bond, chief Clerk of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died in Philadelphia on Sunday

—"Our Great Yankee Nation," is the title of S M Hewlett's lecture this evening, at Corinthian Hall Call for reserved seats at the Post-office News Depot.

—The Harrisburg State Guard, the new daily paper at the capital, has made its appearance. It is a handsome seven column sheet, and displays excellent ability in its various editorial departments.

—Counterfeit two dollar bills, national currency, have been put in circulation. Like the counterfeit tens and twenties, they are much coarser than the genuine, and are easily detected by comparing with the genuine.

—Rev J. A. Davidson will deliver a lecture in City Hall on Thursday evening of next week, 12th instant, for the benefit of Rev. J. N. Webb, pastor of the Baptist Church of this city. Subject: "California and Californians."

—Several gentlemen of Oil City have five acres of land at the upper end of Conplanter Run, which they are preparing to develop, having already commenced to sink a well. The Petrolium thinks it is good territory, and that the prospects for striking oil are good.

—The Westonine mania still rages. A foot race between two pedestrians of Pittsburgh is to come off on Christmas between two members of the great families of "Smith" and "Jones," near that city. The distance will be one hundred yards, for a purse of three hundred dollars.

The Soldiers' Orphans' School to be Opened December 4-2.

The long agony is over. The Orphans' School controversy is ended, The opponents of the project will see no more visions and dream no more dreams of "White Elephants" fattening at the corporation crib. The friends of the undertaking are likely to realize the fulfillment of their best predictions. Mr. Berry intends to practically demonstrate the feasibility of his proposition, by taking the enterprise upon his own shoulders, and conducting it upon an independent footing. He thus redeems his promise that Titusville should have the school, whether it assisted in establishing it, or not. The following letter from General McFarland will explain itself:

HARRISBURG PA, Dec. 2, 1867.

G. S. BERRY, ESQ:

My Dear Sir.—We will issue certificates, dated Dec'mber 14, but had them ready for December 1, and held them over to hear from you. Some have verbal orders to come December 1, and if they come you must provide for them.

The transfers from Phillipsburg I will make as soon as you are started

I have given Col. Finley, of Kittanning, permission to send you children without formal order. When applications have been forwarded, report such cases, and I will send regular orders

Please send me list of your employees as soon as convenient.

If you have no Principal yet, I would say that I have since seen enough of Mr. I. N Belaite, of Shippenburgh, Cumberland county, to satisfy me he will make a number one Principal. He can be had, if engaged soon, but is about opening in Academy. If needed, write to him as above, or to me.

Your school will be filled up promptly when open. Children are abundant and pressing for admission

Very truly yours,
GEO F. MCFARLAND,
Supt. Soldiers' Orphans.

The necessary alterations of the interior of the building are to be commenced to day. The cooking range is to be removed to the old club room in the basement, which will constitute the kitchen. The billiard room is to be used as a dining room. The hotel office and dining room on the second floor will comprise the school room, and for this purpose the parlor and wash rooms are to be taken out. The carving room, front and rear kitchens, &c., on the same floor, are to be converted into sitting rooms for the boys and girls, respectively, and a library. These are all the alterations immediately required.

The furniture for the school room has been ordered of Roberts & Co., of this city, and the furniture for the bed rooms, dining room and kitchen will be ordered immediately. It is expected that everything will be in readiness for opening the school on the 14th inst., as indicated, when city pupils are to be transferred from Phillipsburg.

Every citizen will commend the enterprise of Mr. Berry in thus assuming the responsibility of his favorite project It is a courageous undertaking, and we feel assured that he possesses the requisite ability to render it in every way a gratifying success. He has the heartfelt sympathy of a host of earnest friends.

Exit Wood.

The notorious demagogue has at last found his political grave, and Mozart sits in sackcloth and ashes over the fall of its redoubtable chief. Darling made a gallant fight, but when the rotten metropolis elects an honest man for Mayor, we shall expect the millenium to come to sound.—The Times gave Hoffman its support, as the most available candidate, and as a "choice of evils."—If but a moiety that is said of Hoffman by the New York Herald is true, better men than Hoffman are serving their time in State's prison.—But, as we said before, the election passed off quietly, the terms of the excise law prohibiting the sale of liquor on election day within half-a-mile of an election district. Of course, in the lower wards, there was the usual rowdyism and fighting. There is always a way of getting liquor though the shutters are up, and the police stand guard. Probably less than a hundred thousand votes were polled, over thirty thousand less than the number registered, of which Hoffman received two thirds. Long live Tammany taxation and spoliation!

MARSHALL'S SALE OF REFINERIES.—On Wednesday last the refineries on Waterloo Run formerly owned by Cone & Bigley were sold by Deputy United States Marshal Gray. The sale occurred at Gregg's Switch, where a small number of persons ready to bid for the property were congregated. The refinery at the mouth of the Run could produce fifty barrels of refined oil per day and that situated farther up the run was of a sufficient capacity to produce sixty barrels per day. The former was knocked down to Mr. J. Rorison at $525, and the latter to Mr. David Harris at $625

MASONIC.—The election of officers for the ensuing Masonic year, for Spartan Lodge No. 372 A. F. M., was held Monday evening last, December 2with the following result: Malcolm Webb, Master; John O. Burlingham, Senior Warden; Paul Blackmer, Junior Warden; A. J. Willard, Secretary, and C. W. Hewell, Treasurer. These officers will be installed next St. John's Day at two o'clock in the afternoon. We are requested to state that the members of Oil Creek Lodge No. 208, in this city, are respectfully invited to attend.

The October Election in Philadelphia.

The contested election cases in the Philadelphia courts have brought to light the perpetration of enormous frauds in the interest of the Democratic party. It appeared in evidence that Alderman McMullin, a leading and prominent Democrat, conducted thieves to the polls who voted in the interest of his party One witness swore that he saw six or seven professional thieves taken up to the polls in the Eighth Division by Alderman McMullin. The fact that they were thieves did not disqualify them. A professional thief may vote during the intervals of time between his serving out his time for one offense and his conviction for another. But thieves are generally persons who have no permanent place of residence, and therefore might not have a right to vote. Some of our Philadelphia cotemporaries say these persons, in the Fourth Ward, voted with so much speed that it was apparent to the witness, who stood at some distance, that no questions had been asked of them Upon examination of the list of voters their names do not appear upon it, and, if they voted, it was on other names than their own.

The following paragraph from the Sunday Dispatch exhibits in striking colors, the enormality of Democratic frauds. The Dispatch, in commenting upon the evidence taken, says:

But the most extraordinary revelation in relation to the manner in which the election was carried on in this division is given in the testimony of Thomas Nicholson, who was Inspector of the election, but who, not belonging to the dominant party in the Fourth ward, was treated as of no particular account. Mr. Nicholson says that they got along very well in the morning, until Alderman McMullin made his appearance, when the latter inquired by what authority the Inspector was allowed to hold the list of legal voters furnished by the City Commissioners. Upon this the Judge demanded the book of him, and it was given up after considerable demur, and in fear of violence. The Judge then took the book and sat on it all day The intention of furnishing the book is that the election officers shall have an official list of regular and special assessments, so that the right of persons claiming to vote by residence and assessment may be learned. This book was not used in the Eighth division of the Fourth ward, according to the evidence of Mr. Nicholson, all day.

It is the commission of acts like that described above, which degrades our elections and defeats the grand object of the elective franchise suffrage.

HEWLETT lectures this evening in Corinthian Hall.

Conclusion.

If I had ever agreed not to advertise; if that were treachery; if I had ever been angry in argument; if it were necessary to boast of my character; if office holding had hurt me or was likely to; if family connections means in English, pecuniary interest, if my obligations had ever cost an endorser a cent or were in danger of doing so; if I had ever been capable of saying "parents of orphans;" if my illustrations were as ilty chosen as "catcombs;" if superstition were argument or "shrewd" meant "truthful;" if any of these things had aught of interest to the public I might be excusable for answering Mr. Hershberg. But having been an orphan and not forgotten that a nice bed in an upper room of the Crittenden House with a good school every day below stairs is preferable to walking four miles to school in winter, and working on a farm for a nine months "vacation;" and now in the year of grace 1867, having worked nine months for any practicable way of opening an orphans school in Titusville, without having any other plan than my own urged for a day as feasible; I may be excused for asking how shall $20,000 cash be raised, or why should orphans be kept out of school another year to favor Titusville?

Last night, in the Council, the case stood thus: 230 petitions for the school by the only practical way, representing over 50 per cent. of the assessed valuation of the city; 83 remonstrances, representing 10 per cent. of the city taxables in amount and number; the subject referred to a Committee; their work half done, Chairman absent, no notice of any proposed action. The Council badgered by enemies of the school. Of the six present, one opposed to the school from inveterate habit; one because a lawyer, who pays tax on $50, and plea is nulla bona to the Sheriff, was exciting his religious prejudices, and one trying to sell for a school house a building (Titusville House) containing 4,700 feet of flooring and offering accommodations for only forty five people, to the Crittenden's three hundred. Room in an uproar; Council disgusted. See their proceedings. School now or never is the unmistakable and inflexible order of the State Superintendent (opened yesterday and published herewith) in his mild reproof for delaying after the first of December.

Into the gap a wavering council should have filled, hoping to redeem my town from a disgrace most of its citizens feel, trusting that the result will prove the movement wise, and looking to that majority for sympathy and moral aid, it is still as much for the public good as ever, its profits theirs, its losses, if any, scarcely more really mine. I reverently step alone. Crowd round me, men of hearts! Your help and God's, I need. G. S. BERRY.

PRESENTATION AT MEADVILLE.—On Wednesday evening last, the presentation of a splendid Meerschaum Pipe to Mr. A. S. Beatty, and an elegant silver Castor and Cake Basket to Mrs. Beatty, came off at the residence of Conductor W. H. Stevens, at Meadville. Mr. Beatty has been the U. S. Mail Agent on the Franklin Branch of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad during the past two years. Mr. B. recently resigned, and this presentation was given him by Conductors Stevens and White, of the Franklin Branch, and their ladies, together with the employees on their trains, as a slight testimonial of their appreciation of his many good qualities. The gift was a complete surprise to both Mr. and Mrs. Beatty. Conductor White and lady, the employees on his train and on that of Conductor Stevens, were invited to the latter's residence. Capt. W. W. Gray, of this city, who was also invited, made the presentation speech, and Mr. B responded in behalf of himself and lady, in a few fitting remarks. After the presentation, the whole party adjourned to the dining-room where a bountiful repast, prepared by Mrs. Stevens, was spread. The time was passed in social enjoyment until a late hour, and the party dispersed highly pleased. Altogether the affair was a most pleasant one, and will long be remembered by those who participated in it.

THANKSGIVING DAY was observed by the Americans in Berlin, and in the afternoon a banquet was given, at which one hundred and seventy American ladies and gentlemen, with several eminent foreign guests, were present. Mr. Bancroft presided, and delivered a speech on the occasion, to which the President of the Prussian Chamber of Deputies responded. The occasion was marked by the expressions of mutual good will, and allusions to the cordial relations existing between the American and German nations. A grand ball in the evening completed the festivities of the day.

The Press on the Message.

The part of the President's Message, referring to reconstruction, is so much "fink and paper" thrown away, and shows the characteristic obtuseness of the author—the President. The Evening Post says:

Nearly all that is said of the reconstruction act might as well have been left out. The constitutional aspects of it are disregarded before, with equal force, at least, and the adds nothing to the weight of his argument. Neither can he instruct us much by any new facts, as the experiment is still in the course of trial—scarcely begun, indeed in many respects—and he brought to have awaited the complete results. What he does say, we fear, will open old sores, and justify that acrimonious recalitation of debate on which Congress is only too ready. Nothing more was due to the dignity of the President than to repeat his views in a parag aph, to urge briefly, if he thought proper, a modification of those of Congress, and to state the inconvenience of the Tenure of Office Bill. This persistency in recurring to the old topics will have no effect but to infuse further antagonism, which will tend to prevent an ultimate settlement.

To the same effect are the comments of the Chicago Tribune. It says of he message:

"It opened with a declaration of regret that after he and the rebels had erected governments in the insurrectionary States to their full satisfaction, Congress refused to accept the settlement, and his heart has been sorely grieved in consequence. With an effrontery that is even astonishing in him, he then proceds in an elaborate repetition of his old messages and speeches to argue the superiority of his own exploded and universally repudiated plan of reconstruction, and to advise the repeal of all the laws of Congress providing for reconstruction He graciously states, however, that he does not consider those laws as belonging to that class of legislation requiring of him forcible resistance.

"He is more than usually denunciatory of negro suffrage, and persists in its silly assertion that to admit them to the privileges of voting is to reduce the white race to an inferiority so degrading that there can be no hope of peace or union. The black population of the slave holding States before the war was only thirteenths of the whole; yet Andrew Johnson in his desperate appeals to the prejudices of a past age, repeats the self evident fallacy that the four, if allowed to vote, will necessarily subjugate and reduce to political bondage the other nine who possess all that intelligence, learning and past experience, which in political matters, give them a superiority over the minority, as great almost as their numerical majority. The destruction of national liberties by an enlargement of the suffrage which he predicts is hardly as imminent as he would have us belive. The thirty millions of white people in the union may be trusted with the proper defence of their lives, liberty and government, against any assault committed by four millions of blacks."

Regular Meeting of the Common Council, Wednesday Evening, Dec. 4, 1867.

Present—Messrs. Fisher, Breed, Goodwin, Custar, Abbott and Bean.

Absent—Messrs. Hoirt and McGrum.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Mr. Ira H. Pierce, City Attorney, tendered his resignation, which was accepted.

On motion of Mr. Abbott, seconded by Mr. Bevan, a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Pierce for his promptness in performing his duties as City Attorney.

On motion of Mr. Godwin, seconded by Mr. Breed, Mr. B. S. McAlister was appointed in Mr Pierce's place for the balance of the term.

The following bills were presented and on motion ordered paid:

Ira H. Pierce, for services as City Attorney, $100.

Richard Miller, for use of engine house, $21.75.

H. Wicker, for hauling ashes, $5 00.

H. Hinckley, burying dead horses in 1866, $8 00.

A number of communications from citizens remonstrating against the purchase of the Crittenden House for a Soldiis' Orphans' School, and about an equal number recommending the purchase of the same, were presented and read.

Mr. Custar moved as Mr. Goodwin seconded, that all the communications relative to the matter be placed on file. Carried.

After considerable discussion by the Council and general expression of citizens present for and against the proposed purchase of the Crittenden House, the following motion was made by Mr. Abbott and seconded by Mr. Custar:

Resolved, That so far as this Council is concerned, all action and controversy regarding the purchase of the Crittenden House for a Soldiers' Orphans' School, cease, Carried.

On motion adjourned

T. HALL, City Clerk.

A Card.

TITUSVILLE, Nov. 5, 1867.

Editors Morning Herald:

Some twenty-five out of the two hundred and fifty of neighbors who lately signed a petition to the Common Council in relation to the Crittenden House, are published this morning as remonstrating against that same measure, alleging in the attempt to exonerate conduct that they signed the first under misapprehension of the facts. As this statement appears to reflect on me I respectfully beg those gentlemen to explain. I do this in the belief that some of them have been induced by falsehoods secretly told and which should be exposed. I doubt the more readily as they represent one-half nearly of all the taxation represented on the remonstrance of over eighty names. I know of no one who could have had any motive to lead people into misapprehensions, and unless such are explained I shall believe, much against my will of some of them, that the statement was made in an effort to shirk the odium of an act which the signers knew to be essentially mean.

Yours, respectfully,
GORDON S. BERRY.

SALE OF THE PARKER FARM.—The property of the Parker Petroleum Company, consisting of three hundred and nine acres, adjoining Titusville on the east, was sold at auction yesterday, at 1 p. m., in pursuance of notice. There were but two bids for the property, Mr. Jonathan Watson starting it at $10,000, and Mr. E. C. Galusha bidding $11,000, for which sum it was sold. The sale includes three excellent dwelling houses within the corporate limits, the Parker Oil Refinery, 6 engines, and a large quantity of tubing and other oil well supplies

The farm was originally part of the Kore tract, and was bought by James Parker for farming purposes in 1856, for less than $5,000. In 1863 it was purchased for $120,000, and has since been operated by the Parker Petroleum Company, of Philadelphia. Twenty-one well have been sunk on the territory, about two-thirds of which have produced oil. No. 1 well, on the flat, was estimated to produce 1,000 barrels per day, and it was but 156 feet deep. The Ladies' well produced 300 barrels per day; No 2 well produced 200 and the Oceanic well produced 35 barrels per day. There are now four active producing wells on the farm, but they are of small capacity. Mr. T. McCambridge is the superintendent.

THE QUICKEST TIME ON RECORD.—A well was lately drilled at Shamburg to the depth of eight hundred and thirty seven feet, in the unprecedentedly short time of thirty-eight days, including the driving-pipe. The driller was C. C. Dale. The well is owned by Dr. Bly of Macon, Georgia, and its daily production is fifty barrels. The other well of the doctor's, on the same property, is yielding an average daily production of ninety-six barrels.

THE GROVER AND BAKER SEWING MACHINE.—One testimonial like the following, should decide in the mind of any lady that the Grover and Baker is the machine for family use. Read this:

I have, for eight years, used in my family and business, (millinery and dress making,) a Grover & Baker Machine, and do unhesitatingly pronounce them the best machine in use. I have thoroughly tested several of the lock-stitch machines, and find them far inferior to the "Grover and Baker."

It is simple in construction, easily run, and makes no noise; the stitch is elastic and will wash without breaking, which I can say of no other machine.

Office of the American Oil Works,
Petroleum Centre, Sept 16, 1867.

MR. W. S. PAYNE, SIR:—

Having used your self-closing barrel filler for several months past, to the extent of about one hundred barrels per day, we have no hesitancy in saying that it has proved entirely satisfactory; being a great saving of Labor and an entire guard against waste of valuable liquids. Two Hundred Dollars would not buy our machine if we could not get another.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Library of Universal Information.

THE NEW

AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA:

A Popular Dictionary of General Knowledge.

EDITED BY

GEORGE RIPLEY AND CHARLES A. DANA,

AIDED BY A NUMEROUS SELECT CORPS OF WRITERS, IN ALL BRANCHES OF SCIENCE, ART AND LITERATURE.

In 16 large volumes, 8vo.

750 double-column pages in each volume.

The leading claims to public consideration which the New American Cyclopædia possesses may be thus briefly stated:

"1. It surpasses all other works in the fullness and ability of the articles relating to the United States.

"2. No other work contains so many reliable biographies of the leading men of this and other nations. In this respect it is far superior even to the more bulky Encyclopædia Britannica.

"3. The best minds in this country have been employed in enriching its pages with the latest, clearest, and most recent discoveries in every branch of manufacture, mechanics, and general science.

"4. It is a library in itself, where every topic is treated, and where information can be gleaned which will enable a student, if he is so disposed, to consult other authorities, thus affording him an invaluable key to knowledge.

"5. It is neatly printed, with readable type, on good paper, and contains a most copious index.

"6. It is the only work which gives anything approaching correct descriptions of cities and towns of America, or embodies reliable statistics showing the wonderful growth of all sections."

Every one that reads, every one that mingles in society, is constantly meeting with allusions to subjects on which he needs and desires further information. In conversation, in trade, in professional life, on the farm, in the family, practical questions are continually arising, which no man, well read or not, can always satisfactorily answer. It is Office for reference are at hand, they are consulted, and not only is the curiosity gratified, and stock of knowledge increased, but perhaps information is gained and ideas are suggested that will directly contribute to the business success of the party concerned.

A Cyclopædia is pre-eminently the work for our country and generation. This is the age of steam. No one has time to grope among a hundred different works for every little fact required, without the certainty of finding it at last. With a Cyclopædia, embracing every conceivable subject, and having its topics alphabetically arranged, not a moment is lost. The matter in question is found at once, condensed, stripped of all that is tedious and unnecessary, and verified by a comparison of the best authorities. Moreover, while only men of fortune can collect a library complete in volumes, in knowledge, a Cyclopædia which in itself for purposes of reference at 10 cts a thousand volumes, is within the reach of all—the clerk, the merchant, the professional man, the farmer, the mechanic. In a country like ours, where the humblest may be called to responsible positions requiring intelligence and general information, the value of such a work cannot be overestimated.

PAYNE'S BARREL FILLER!

Important to

OIL REFINERS & DISTILLERS!

W. S. PAYNE'S IMPROVED SELF-CLOSING AUTOMATIC BARREL FILLER

Was patented September 10, 1867, and has just been introduced in the Oil Regions. The advantages gained by the use of the Filler are

1st. SAVING OF TIME.—The Filler being so constructed that a vantage is taken of the full pressure of the Oil or Liquid as it flows from the tank, the barrel is filled in from one-half to one-fourth the time required by the usual process; and the Filler brings forward the two known designed to filling may be engaged in arranging or bringing the barrels straight filler; the Filler shut off the flow of liquid, just at the right time, far more accurately than could be done by any workman.

2. The employment of a Gauge, perfectly simple, but so arranged that the barrel may be filled to any required height, and then at once closed to any oil or liquid, or any external pressure, and that by its own action, yet in this respect a perfect automaton, and rendering the use of a "filler" entirely unnecessary.

3. The Barrel never overflows; the Rest is one often saving in a single day, more than the cost of the Filler.

The Filler is designed to be used for filling Casks, Tanks, Cisterns, Water Tanks of Locomotives, and in general all vessels or receptacles that are to be filled with liquids. Its object is to economize labor. One man with this Filler is being able to accomplish the work of four men without it. One man can easily attend to six of these machines when at work thus accomplishing the work of four to six men operating the old way. An engineer with this instrument can settle in operation and keep about his business of his engine, etc., when the tank is filled, the water will be shut off, and the instrument withdrawn from the tank. It may be used also at stores, in filling measures, bottles, etc., and effect a great saving of labor.

The Filler is made in the most substantial manner of the best brass and by gas and steam fitters, and warranted to give perfect satisfaction.

W. S. PAYNE, M. S. SIMMONS, E. D. BRADY and W. K. DeWITT, are the exclusive owners of the Patent.
